

LAWS

OF THE

STATE OF NEW-YORK,

RELATING TO THE

CITY OF SCHENECTADY:

AND THE

Laws and Ordinances

OF THE

Common Council

OF THE

CITY OF SCHENECTADY.

---

SCHENECTADY.

PRINTED AT THE CABINET PRINTING-HOUSE.

I. RIGGS, PRINTER.

---

December, 1824.

combustibles within three quarters of a mile of the said Dutch church, shall cause the doors and windows thereof to be close shut up every night before dark, and that he, she or they shall not suffer any person to go into such barn or stable with a lighted candle, unless the same be enclosed in a lantern, neither shall he, she or they enter or suffer any person to enter the same smoking either segars or a pipe, under the penalty of forfeiting for every such offence, the sum of one dollar.

Hay, &c. not to be thrown or left in the street.

X. And be it further ordained, That from and after the passing of this law, no person shall throw hay, straw, shavings and other combustibles into the street or into any other open place where there appears to be danger of setting any building or fences on fire, and suffer the same to remain there more than twenty-four hours, under the penalty of one dollar; and any inhabitant within the limits aforesaid suffering any hay, straw, shavings or other combustibles to lay in the street or any other place before his house or lot in the night time (provided any inspector, or any other citizen within the said limits, shall have notified him that such combustibles are lying before his lot,) shall forfeit the sum of one dollar for every night he neglects to remove the same.

Discharging gun &c.
prohibited.

XI. And be it further ordained, That if any person shall fire or discharge any gun, pistol, rocket, cracker, squib or other fire works, in any street, lane or alley, or in any yard, garden or other inclosure, or in any place which persons frequent to walk within the limits aforesaid, without permission of the mayor or one of the aldermen or assistants of this city, such person shall forfeit for every such offence the sum of one dollar; and that no person shall smoke segars or a pipe when among shavings or any other combustibles, nor carry or suffer their children or servants to carry fire from one house to another, unless it be in a stove, covered kettle or otherwise secured from falling on the ground, or being blown about with the wind, under penalty of forfeiting, for every such offence, the sum of one dollar.

Smoking
segar or pipe prohibited.

XII. And be it further ordained, That no person shall, unless by the consent of the mayor or one of aldermen or assistants, set on fire or burn any shavings, chips, straw or other combustibles or make any fire for any purpose whatsoever either on the ground, or in any stove, cabouse, or any temporary place in any street, lane, yard or, on the bank or margin of the river or canal within the limits aforesaid, under the penalty of two dollars for each offence.

Shavings, &c. not to be burnt in street.

Unslacked lime how to be secured.

XIII. And be it further ordained, That no unslacked lime except in small quantities, not exceeding five bushels, shall be deposited within the limits aforesaid, unless in some secure place to be approved of by the mayor or one of the aldermen or assistants in writing, under the penalty of five dollars for every offence, and a like penalty for every twenty four hours neglect, or refusal, to remove the same, after notice so to do