

THE
L A W S
OF
KEMPER COLLEGE, NEAR
SAINT LOUIS, MISSOURI, ENACTED BY THE TRUSTEES,
March, 1840.

ST. LOUIS:
CHURCHILL & HARRIS, PRINTERS.
.....
1840.

6. No Student shall keep arms of any sort, or keep or fire powder on the College premises.

7. There may be two exhibitions in every year, one at the close of each Session; the first of the Senior, and the second of the Junior Class. These Exhibitions shall be conducted, and the speakers selected in such way as the Faculty may decide.

CHAPTER IX.

COMMENCEMENT.

1. The annual commencement shall be on the first Wednesday in October.

2. The exercises of commencement, and all matters appertaining thereto, shall be under the direction of the President, who, after consultation with the Faculty, shall select the Speakers, and assign them their parts at the end of the second session of the senior year.

3. The exercises thus assigned, shall be brought to the President for review and approbation, at such time as he may appoint.

4. If any student shall speak an exercise, or part of an exercise, which has not been approved by the President, his degree shall be forfeited.

5. No student shall be a candidate for the first degree, until all his college bills shall have been settled to the satisfaction of the Treasurer, and until he shall have paid to the President five dollars as a graduation fee. If these conditions be not fulfilled before six o'clock on the evening before commencement, the degree of such delinquent may be refused.

6. One dollar shall be paid to the President for signing a diploma, and affixing the college seal.
