death ensues, it will be manslaughter or murder, according to the circumstances of the case : And provided, That all other instances which stand upon the same footing of reason and justice, as specified in this section, shall be considered as excuseable homicide, and provided always, the homicide appearing excuseable or justifiable, the person or persons so indicted upon his, her or their trial shall be fully acquitted and discharged.

ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO INFLICT A BODILY INJURY.

Sec. 20. If any person or persons, in this Territory, shall make an assault with a deadly weapon, instrument, or other thing, with an intent to inflict upon the person of another, a bodily injury, where no considerable provocation appears, or where the circumstances of the assault show an abandoned and malignant heart, shall be adjudged to be a high misdemeanor, and any person who shall be duly convicted thereof, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, and imprisoned in the penitentiary, at hard labor, for a term not exceeding three years.

DUELING.

Sec. 21. If any person shall challenge any other person to fight a duel in this Territory, or elsewhere, such person being a resident of this Territory, or shall accept a challenge to fight a duel, or shall knowingly be the bearer of a challenge, for the purpose aforesaid, or shall be a second to any person who fights a duel, or shall aid, promote, or assist any duel, every such person so offending, upon conviction thereof, shall forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding two thousand dollars, nor less than five hundred dollars, and shall moreover be rendered incapable of holding or being elected to any office of profit, trust, or emolument, either civil or military, in this Territory, or of voting at any election within the same, and shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary, at hard labor, not less than one nor more than three years.

Sec. 22. Every person who shall fight a duel with any deadly weapon or weapons, and death ensues, shall be adjudged guilty of murder.

Sec. 23. On the trial of any person for any offence under the provisions of the twenty-first section of this act, if there was a written challenge to fight, or any other paper, it shall not be necessary, on the part of the prosecution, to produce such challenge or paper, but shall
