§ 32. Any person who shall wilfully injure such armory ^{Penalty} or its fixtures, or any gun, sword, pistol or other property of the state therein deposited, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 33. The commissary-general may from time require any ^{Report.} officer to examine any armory provided as aforesaid, and report to him the condition thereof, and of the arms and camp equipment therein deposited.

§ 34. It shall be competent for the commissary-general to ^{Armories by whom to be erected.} assign the supervision of the erection of such armories to any officer within the bounds of the regiment or brigade in which the same may be located.

§ 35. Every officer of the line and staff, and every officer ^{Officers, &c. to provide complete uniforms.} and private of any uniform company in this state, shall provide himself with a uniform complete, which shall be such as the commander-in-chief shall prescribe, and subject to such restrictions, limitations and alterations as he may order.

§ 36. There shall be one parade in every year for six consecutive days, by battalion, regiment or brigade, as the commanding officer of division shall deem most expedient to order, for the purpose of encampment, training, discipline, inspection and review; and all other company and regimental ^{Annual parades.} parades heretofore required by law, are hereby abolished.

§ 37. The commanding officer of each brigade shall order ^{At what time of the year.} the troops under his command to parade for the above purpose, at such place and time between the fifteenth day of August and the first day of November in each year, to commence on any Monday therein, as he shall deem proper, and in the following order:

1. The commissioned, non-commissioned officers and musicians ^{Officers.} of any battalion, regiment or brigade, or the different corps thereof as shall be ordered to appear at the places appointed for such parade, shall meet at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, and shall not leave without permission, until the close of the parade on the sixth day thereof;

2. All the uniformed privates of each company belonging ^{Uniformed privates.} to each battalion, regiment or brigade or the different corps thereof as the case may be, shall meet the officers of their respective companies at such parade, on Thursday, the fourth day thereof, in their respective uniforms, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, and shall not leave without permission, until the close of the parade on the sixth day thereof.

3. The ununiformed privates of each company district shall ^{Ununiformed privates.} meet their respective uniformed companies at such parade, on Thursday, the fourth day of such parade, armed and equipped as the law directs, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, for company parade, inspection, review and martial exercise, and
