ORDINANCES

OF THE

CITY OF HUDSON.

ORDERED BY RESOLUTION

OF THE

MAYOR AND COMMON COUNCIL.

HUDSON CITY:
PRINTED BY W. D. MCGREGOR.
1868.

AN ORDINANCE TO PREVENT THE USE OF FIRE ARMS, ETC.

The Mayor and Common Council of the City of Hudson do ordain as follows:

No person to carry gun on land of another.

§ 1. No person shall within this city carry any gun on lands not his own, without the written permission of the owner or legal possessor of such lands.

No firing of guns, etc. allowed.

§ 2. No person shall within this city fire or discharge any gun, pistol, cannon or fowling-piece or other fire-arms, unless in defence of his or her property or person, nor let off any squibs, crackers or other fireworks, unless by permission of the city authorities.

Penalty.

§ 3. Each and every person convicted of violating any of the provisions of this ordinance, shall pay a fine of five dollars, the one half to be paid to the city treasurer for the use of the city, and the other half to the person prosecuting the same, together with the costs of prosecution, and stand committed until the same be paid.

§ 4. It shall and may be lawful for any such owner or possessor as aforesaid, to apprehend any and every such person or persons violating any of the provisions of the first section of this ordinance, and take him or them before a justice of the peace in this city, as soon as conveniently may be, in order that he or they may be dealt with according to law; and every such person who may perform this service, shall be entitled to the same assistance and protection, and subject to the same restrictions and liabilities as a constable would be on the same occasion.

Prosecutions before the Mayor.

§ 5. All prosecutions for violation of any of the provisions of this ordinance, shall be brought before the Mayor or justice of the peace of this city, and in the name of the city in its corporate capacity.

Passed November 15th, 1855.

Approved November 16th, 1855.

AN ORDINANCE TO EXEMPT THE MEMBERS OF THE FIRE DEPARTMENT FROM MILITIA DUTY, AND FROM SERVING AS JURORS IN CERTAIN COURTS.

The Mayor and Common Council of the City of Hudson do ordain as follows:

§ 1. That all firemen, residents of the City of Hudson, now actually enrolled and serving as such, or that shall hereafter be duly appointed by the Common Council of the said city, and who shall produce the certificate of the said Common Council, signed by the Mayor and city clerk of said city, certifying their appointment, shall during actual service and enrollment as such, be exempt from serving as jurors in any of the courts for the trial of small causes in the County of Hudson, and shall also be exempt from all militia duty within the State of New Jersey, and from the payment of taxes, assessments, or commutation fees for military purposes—except in the cases of war, invasion or insurrection.

Firemen exempt from jury in justices courts.
