

747.
CHARTER AND REVISED ORDINANCES

OF THE

CITY OF GALVESTON,

AND

ALL ORDINANCES IN FORCE TO DECEMBER 1, 1875,

The Standing Rules of the City Council,

AND

CATALOGUE OF THE CITY GOVERNMENT

FROM 1839 TO 1875, INCLUSIVE.

GALVESTON:

PRINTED AT THE "NEWS" BOOK AND JOB ESTABLISHMENT.
1875.

SEC. 21. That every person or firm doing the business of shipping master, a tax of twenty-five dollars.

Shipping master.

SEC. 22. That every person or firm doing business as a cotton broker, or as a ticket or freight agent for a railroad company not located in this State, a tax of forty dollars.

See section 2, article 3, title 5, city charter. Cotton broker, railroad ticket or freight agent.

SEC. 23. That every real estate agent or house broker, a tax of twenty-five dollars.

Real estate agent or house broker.

SEC. 24. That every person or firm engaged as a cotton or other produce weigher, a tax of twenty-five dollars.

Cotton or produce weigher.

SEC. 25. That every keeper of a warehouse, solely for storage of merchandise, a tax of thirty dollars.

Keeper of warehouse for storage.

SEC. 26. That every keeper of a billiard or other like table, for public use, a tax of twenty dollars for each and every table so kept; and every keeper of a ten-pin alley, a tax of thirty dollars for each and every alley so kept for public use. Every keeper of a pistol or rifle gallery, a tax of twenty-five dollars.

See section 2, article 3, title 5, city charter.

Billiard table. Ten-pin alley. Pistol or rifle gallery.

SEC. 27. That every undertaker's establishment, a tax of twenty-five dollars.

Undertaker.

SEC. 28. That every person or firm keeping a lumber yard shall pay a tax of sixty dollars. Every person or firm dealing in sash, doors or blinds, a tax of forty dollars. Every person or firm dealing in carriages, buggies, etc., a tax of fifty dollars.

See section 3, article 4, title 5, city charter. Lumber yard. Dealer in doors, sash or blinds. Dealer in carriages, buggies, etc.

SEC. 29. That every person or firm keeping a barber's shop shall pay a tax of five dollars for every chair employed in his business.

Barber shop.

SEC. 30. That every millinery establishment, where any articles of goods, wares and merchandise are sold, shall pay the retail merchandise tax prescribed in section 10 of this ordinance; but if said goods, wares and merchandise are made up in the establishment, the tax shall be twenty dollars.

Millinery establishment.

SEC. 31. That every peddler, hawker, or itinerant dealer in merchandise, of any character whatever, shall pay a tax of fifty dollars; provided, that no license shall See section 2, article 3, title 5, city charter. Peddler, hawker, etc.