this provision, such person shall forfeit and pay to the town not less than one nor more than ten dollars.

SEC. 9. Every person owning, using or occupying any cellar having a stairway therefrom, or any area opening into any street, alley, walk or public square of this town, shall properly secure such stairway or area by a sufficient door or grating covering the whole opening into such street, alley, walk or public square, any person offending herein shall forfeit and pay to the town a fine of not less than one nor more than five dollars for each offence; and every day such stairway or area shall remain without being so secured shall constitute a distinct offence.

SEC. 10. No person, without permission from the Council, shall keep any slaughter-house in this town, or kill or slaughter for sale any animal in the town; and any person offending herein, shall forfeit and pay to the town five dollars for every such offence; and every day such slaughter-house shall be so kept shall constitute a distinct offence.

SEC. 11. It shall not be lawful for any person or persons to burn or cause to be burned any shavings or other combustibles, in any part of the streets, alleys or public squares, or in any yard, in this town, except workmen whose business necessarily requires out door fires; nor then, if in the opinion of any two respectable house-keepers, any house or building may be thereby endangered; and every person offending herein shall forfeit and pay to the town a fine of not less than one nor more than five dollars for every such offence.

SEC. 12. It shall not be lawful for any person to keep in any shop, store, warehouse or other house or building within this town, without the special permission or authority from the Council, a greater quantity of gun or rock powder at any one time than twenty-five pounds; and every person offending against the provision of this section shall forfeit and pay to the town a fine of not less than five nor more than ten dollars,

SEC. 13. It shall not be lawful for any owner or occupier of any livery or other stable, or of any out-house that may contain any hay, straw or other fodder, nor any person in his or her employment, to use or carry therein any lighted candle or other light, unless the same be secured within a tin, horn or glass lantern; and every person offending herein shall forfeit and pay to the town a fine of not less than one nor more than ten dollars for every such offence.

SEC. 14. It shall not be lawful for any person to throw the water, slop or offal from his or her house or kitchen into or upon any street, alley or public square of this town, or permit or suffer the same to be done by any person in his or her employment, or belonging to his or her family; nor shall any person permit the waste water, slop or offal from his or her house or kitchen to run or flow into or upon any such street, alley or public square, except pure water from hydrants or supply-pipes. nor shall any person throw or place, or cause to be
