LAWS AND ORDINANCES

OF THE

CITY OF DENVER,

COLORADO.

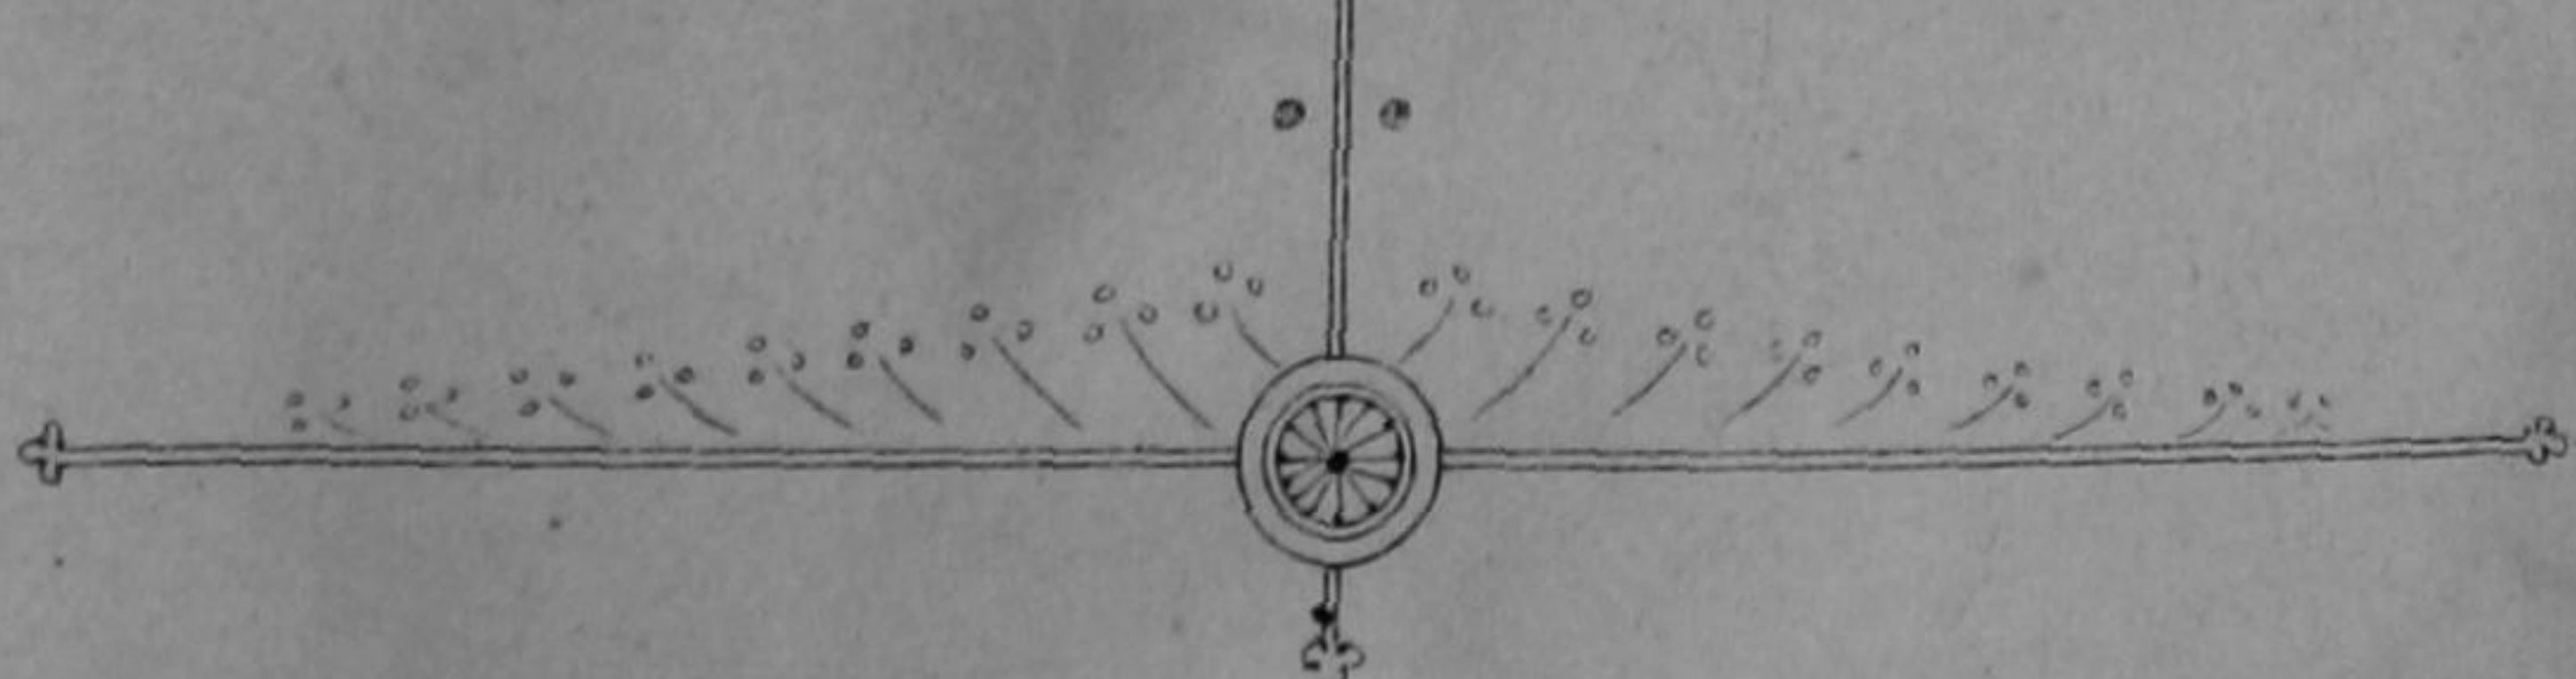

COMPRISING THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES,
CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF COLORADO, CHARTER
OF THE CITY, AND ALL ORDINANCES THEREOF, OF A GENERAL CHARACTER, IN FORCE AND OPERA-TION AT THE DATE OF THIS PUBLICATION.

Revised, Compiled and Codified

LARIMER & 14TH STY
1886.
C. & C. LITH. CO.

said gunpowder or gun-cotton be secured in tight cases or kegs well headed and hooped, and put into and entirely covered with a good, tight and substantial leather bag sufficient to prevent the same from being spilled or scattered, or unless the same is put into a well covered and perfectly water-tight box, the bottom and sides of which shall be completely covered with zinc, or unless such gunpowder or gun-cotton be secured in water-tight patent metallic cases or kegs.

Transportation of powder beyond city limits.

SEC. 12. All gunpowder and gun-cotton coming into the city in greater quantities than fifty pounds shall, within twenty-four hours after its arrival, be transported and conveyed beyond the city limits; Provided, however, that powder or gun-cotton may be conveyed to and stored in the magazines which are embraced in the exceptions made in section nine; and Provided further, that in case of the receipt in or shipment from said city of powder in quantities exceeding one hundred kegs in one lot, the Mayor may, on a proper case made, grant special permit in writing extending said time, not exceeding forty-eight hours.

Not to stand on the streets.

SEC. 13. No gunpowder or gun-cotton shipped to or from the city of Denver shall be permitted or suffered to be or remain on any street, alley, highway, railroad track or car, or other place within said city in a greater quantity than fifty pounds, except as herein otherwise provided, for a longer period than a reasonable time to load and unload the same, which time, however, shall not exceed twelve hours; Provided, however, the Mayor may, by permit in writing, extend said time not exceeding twenty-four hours.

Vehicles for transporting powder.

SEC. 14. No wagon, dray, cart or other vehicle loaded, in whole or in part, with gunpowder or gun-cotton, shall be permitted to stand or remain on any street, alley, highway or place in said city, except when unavoidably detained, and every magazine, safe, box or keg used for storing or transporting, and all vehicles employed in hauling gunpowder or gun-cotton within the city, shall have the word "Powder" painted upon both sides of the same in large letters.

When permits expire.

SEC. 15. All permits granted under this ordinance shall expire on the first day of May in each year. No permit shall be granted to any retailer of intoxicating liquor or to any intemperate person. The Treasurer shall receive for the use of the city five dollars for each and every permit which may be issued.

Finding powder in buildings.

SEC. 16. All gunpowder or gun-cotton which shall be found in any store, store house, manufactory or other building, or which may be found in any cart, wagon or other vehicle, in violation of any provision of this ordinance, shall be immediately seized and removed to some secure place, and it is hereby made the duty of the members of the police force to assist in said seizure and removal when called upon so to do.
