waiving the homestead," or "upon a claim against which the homestead cannot be demanded." This statement shall be endorsed upon the executions issued upon said judgments or decrees.

2. In any action or suit when it is not apparent from the face of the pleadings that the demand is not subject to the homestead exemption, the plaintiff shall not have the benefit of the foregoing section unless in his declaration he alleges that his demand is not subject to such homestead exemption.

3. But no presumption of non-waiver, or presumption that the judgment or decree was rendered upon a demand against which homestead could be claimed, is to be drawn from the silence of any judgment, execution, or decree on the matters provided for by this act.

Commencem't. 4. This act shall be in force from its passage.

CHAP. 152.—An ACT to prevent selling or furnishing cigarettes or tobacco in any form, or pistols, dirks, or bowie-knives to minors under sixteen years of age.

Approved February 28, 1890.

1. Be it enacted by the general assembly of Virginia, That if any person sell, barter, give or furnish or cause to be sold, bartered, given, or furnished to any minor under sixteen years of age cigarettes, or pistols, or dirks, or bowie-knives, having good cause to believe him or her to be a minor under sixteen years of age, said person shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars.

Commencem't. 2. This act shall be in force from its passage.

CHAP. 153.—An ACT for the relief of V. B. Gilmer, treasurer of Russell county.

Approved March 3, 1890.

1. Be it enacted by the general assembly of Virginia, That the county school board for the county of Russell be, and they are hereby, empowered to allow V. B. Gilmer, county treasurer of said county, in his annual settlement with them on account of school funds to be apportioned said county for the year eighteen hundred and ninety, a sum which shall be equal to not exceeding two per centum on school funds apportioned said county under act of March sixth, eighteen hundred and eighty-two, for the
