tions in regard to the several foregoing matters as he shall deem expedient to guard against fire or accident, either as to the removal or alteration, or better care and management thereof.

864. § 16. That whenever the Chief of Fire Department shall give the notice or directions mentioned in the foregoing section to the owner or occupant of any premises, either verbally or by printed or written notice, in which any of the matters mentioned in said section shall be contained, it shall be the duty of said owner or occupant, within twenty-four hours, to cause such removal or alteration therein, at the owner or occupant's expense, as shall be required by said Chief of the Fire Department. If the owner or occupant refuses or neglects to cause such removal or alteration within twenty-four hours after serving of said notice, he shall be subject to a fine of not less than two dollars and not more than ten dollars for each and every day such violation shall continue, after twenty-four hours from the serving of said notice.

865. § 17. No person shall keep, sell, or give away any gunpowder or guncotton in any quantity without permission in writing signed by the Chief of Fire Department and City Clerk, and sealed with the corporate seal, under a penalty of twenty-five dollars for every offense: Provided, Any person may keep for his own use a quantity of gunpowder or guncotton not exceeding one pound.

866. § 18. All applications for such permits shall be made to the Chief of Fire Department, and no more than six shall be granted in any one block.

867. § 19. The Chief of Fire Department shall make an entry thereof in a register to be provided for that purpose, which entry shall state the name and place of business and the date of permit.

868. § 20. No person shall sell or weigh any gunpowder or guncotton after the lighting of lamps in the evening, unless in sealed canisters or cases.

869. § 21. It shall be the duty of every person to whom a permit shall be given to keep a sign at the front door of his
