§ 756. Every person using or procuring, encouraging or assisting another to use any force or violence in entering upon or detaining any lands or other possessions of another, except in the cases and in the manner allowed by law, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 757. Every person who has been removed from any land by process of law or who has been removed from any lands pursuant to the lawful adjudication or direction of any court, tribunal or officer, and who afterwards returns to settle, reside upon or take possession of such lands is guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 758. Every person who within the limits of any city or town carries or bears concealed upon his person a dirk, dagger, pistol, revolver, or other deadly weapon is punishable by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars. This Section does not apply to peace officers in discharge of their official duty.

INDICTMENT framed under this section need not negative the exception contained in the statute: Territory v. Burns, 6 Mont. 72.

§ 759. Every person who brings into this state an armed person or armed body of men for the preservation of the peace or the suppression of domestic violence, except at the solicitation and by the permission of the legislative assembly or of the governor, is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding ten years and by a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars.
