REVISED AND AMENDED, TOGETHER WITH AN ACT OF THE LEGISLATURE OF THE TERRITORY OF COLO-RADO, IN RELATION TO MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS.

COMPILED AND REVISED BY
THOMAS M. PATTERSON, Attorney-at-Law.

DENVER:
R. W. WOODBURY, PRINTER.
1875.

ARTICLE II.

OFFENSES AFFECTING PUBLIC SAFETY.

SEC. 1. If any person shall, within this city, fire or discharge any cannon, gun, fowling piece, pistol or fire arms of any description, or fire, explode or set off any squib, cracker, or other thing containing powder or other combustible or explosive material, without permission from the Mayor (which permission shall limit the time of such firing, and shall be subject to be revoked by the Mayor or City Council at any time after the same has been granted), every such person shall, on conviction, be fined in a sum not less than one dollar and not exceeding one hundred dollars: Provided, that no permission shall be granted to any person or persons to hold or conduct any shooting match or competitive trial of skill with fire arms within the limits of this city.

SEC. 2. If any person shall immoderately ride or drive any horse in any avenue, street, alley or lane, within the limits of this city, every such person shall, on conviction, be fined in a sum not less than one dollar, nor more than one hundred dollars. And it is hereby made the duty of the Chief of Police and all police officers, and it shall be lawful for any citizen to stop any person who may be immoderately riding or driving as aforesaid.

SEC. 3. If any person shall vend, give or deliver, within this city, any deadly poison, knowing the same to be such, without marking the same in legible characters "poison," every such person shall, on conviction, be fined in a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars.

SEC. 4. All scaffolds erected in this city for use in the erection of stone, brick, or other buildings, shall be well and safely supported, and of sufficient width and properly secured, so as to insure the safety of persons working thereon, or passing under or by the same, against the falling thereof, or of such materials as may be used, placed or deposited thereon. Any scaffold which may be otherwise erected shall be deemed a nuisance; and any person who shall erect or use, or cause to be erected or used, any scaffold contrary to the provisions hereof, shall be subject to a fine of not less than five dollars, and not exceeding one hundred dollars, and a like fine for every day the same shall remain after notice to remove.

SEC. 5. The owner or owners of any building or buildings, fronting on any street within the City of Denver, shall
