AND ORDINANCES
OF THE
CITY OF SAN ANTONIO.

COMPRISING ALL ORDINANCES OF A GENERAL
CHARACTER IN FORCE

AUGUST 7th, 1899.

REVISED BY
THEODORE HARRIS, ESQ.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY OF THE CITY COUNCIL.

THE SAN ANTONIO PRINTING CO.,
PRINTERS AND BLANK BOOK MANUFACTURERS,
SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS.

nances have been laid, or hereafter may be laid, by such person, company or corporation, shall become out of repair on account of use thereof by them, or whenever it becomes necessary to take up any pipes or appurtenances on account of construction or reconstruction of streets, alleys or public places, or any other improvements, the mayor shall notify such person, company or corporation, by mail or otherwise, to cause the same to be repaired, or cause such changes or removals to be made as are necessary, and if the said company shall fail or refuse to obey such notice within the time prescribed therein, then the mayor shall cause the repairs to be made, or work to be done by the street commissioner, same to be paid for out of the special fund heretofore provided. Whenever a part or the whole of said five hundred dollars ($500.00) has been expended for the purpose hereinbefore mentioned, the mayor shall notify the said company to pay so much more money into the city treasury as shall bring the fund up again to five hundred dollars ($500.00).
